Tour Description

Immerse yourself in Corfu's rich gastronomic traditions with this exclusive half-day private tour showcasing the island's finest olive oils and wines.

Your culinary journey begins as you settle into a comfortable, modern air-conditioned vehicle for a scenic drive through Corfu's lush countryside. First, visit a historic family-run olive mill dating back to the 15th century, where the distinguished Dafnis Family has perfected their craft across generations. Discover their time-honored production methods while sampling their internationally acclaimed extra virgin olive oils, learning to distinguish their complex flavors and unique characteristics.

The experience continues at the prestigious Theotoki Estate, one of Corfu's oldest and most renowned wineries. Wander through picturesque vineyards as expert vintners explain their sustainable cultivation practices and traditional winemaking techniques. In an elegant tasting room overlooking the estate, savor a carefully curated selection of distinctive local wines perfectly paired with artisanal Corfiot delicacies.

Throughout this intimate tour, your knowledgeable guide shares fascinating insights about Corfu's agricultural heritage and how these ancient culinary traditions remain vibrant parts of island life today.
